The Key

One night a neighbor seeing Mullah Nasruddin looking for something on the ground in front of his house came over and offered to help.

Nasruddin said he'd dropped his keys. After looking around the neighbor said, "Mullah, they just don't seem to be here. Tell me exactly what you were doing when you dropped your keys."

"I was trying to open my front door." was the reply.

The neighbor said, "But if you lost the keys by the door why are we looking in the street?"

"Ah," said the Mullah, "there's no light by the door."
